FREE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY!

Creating a School Culture for Cultivating Character

June 18 | 8:30–11:30am (check-in 8am) | NEWESD 101, 4202 S. Regal, Spokane

Since the launch of PACE in September 2010, schools, families and businesses have embraced a common set of monthly character traits and celebrated students who display these traits. Join us for an engaging, professional development opportunity to use character education as a tool for fostering improved learning environments! You'll hear from two keynote speakers from Lewiston, Idaho who lead schools recognized for developing positive school cultures that promote academic excellence and character development.

Learning Targets:

- Improve school climate through character education
- Utilize character education resources to promote academic excellence
- TPEP criteria: Teacher Criteria 1, 5 & 7; Principal Criteria 1, 3 & 8

Agenda at a Glance:

- The progress & practices of PACE partners
- Phil Ulhorn, Keynote Speaker • "Fostering a Positive Middle School Culture"
- Kristy Brinkerhoff, Keynote Speaker • "Developing Student Leaders with Seven Habits for Happy Kids"

You'll receive:

- Tips – ideas from award-winning character education programs and networking with colleagues
- Tools – to better understand how to use character education to support

Who should attend?

School leadership teams, administrators, counselors, teachers, paraeducators and others interested in character education.

Schools that have completed the PACE/CEP Self-Assessment Survey will be invited to attend a STCU-sponsored working lunch session after the workshop to analyze their survey data and plan next steps. Additionally, survey completers will be entered into a drawing to receive a gift basket and a $500 grant for their school!
